8oz cooked pork
5 tbsp. ground almonds
1 pint milk
1 tbsp. rice flour
4 eggs lightly beaten
1 tbsp. sugar
2 tbsp. parsley, finely chopped
Pinch of saffron

- 1 -Grind the almonds with $\frac{1}{2}$ pint water, strain off the almond milk and mix a little of this with the pork, before grinding it to a smooth paste.
- 2 -Thoroughly mix the pork, milk, eggs, saffron and parsley in a pan, bring to the boil while stirring continuously, simmer for 5 minutes, then leave to cool a little, before hanging up in a cloth until completely drained, cold and set firm.
- 3 -Slice the charlet, arrange in a dish, and pour over it a sauce made by simmering the rest of the almond milk, rice flour, sugar and saffron together for a few minutes.
